Italian-Swiss HEARTist and embodiment & voice coach working at the intersection of voice alchemy, somatic intelligence, Bhakti Yoga, and regenerative culture design. She supports visionaries and system creators in reclaiming their voice, aligning with purpose, and embodying coherence between body, heart, and leadership.

A LIVING PERMISSION SLIP TO UNLEASH YOUR AUTHENTIC EXPRESSION WEAVING THE CULTURE THAT NEW EARTH LEADERS ARE BORN INTO, THROUGH VOICE ALCHEMY, ANCIENT WISDOM, AND THE RADICAL POWER OF EMBODIED HUMANNESS.

Founder of Flawsome Wellness with over nine years of experience, she bridges the SOMA, the heart-womb, and authentic expression : activating voice as a portal for clarity, resonance, and impact. Through immersive experiences, retreats, and mentorship, she guides individuals into deeper embodiment, confidence, and creative expression.
Beyond personal transformation, Anna's work extends into cultural regeneration: supporting and creating new systems, communities, and relational ways of living rooted in care, trust, and coherence. The core of her being: to live heart-based, embody the frequency of love, and guide others to do the same.
